

CITY GAZEBO USE RULES

The historic Hanna House and grounds are on the National Register of Historic Places. The bandstand (gazebo) is available for public use for weddings and other events by City permit.

---

1. There will be a permit fee of $100.00 to be fully refunded after the event as long as all “permit rules” have been followed.
2. Decorations can be affixed to the City Gazebo with masking tape only. No staples, tacks or fasteners are to be used.
3. Live music and/or other loud noise: All events at the City Gazebo are subject to existing commercial Anchorage noise ordinances. Amplified sound speakers should be oriented towards the center of the property.
4. Daylight use only. Permitted events are restricted to daytime use, defined as from 30 minutes before dawn to 8:00 p.m.
5. 100 or less total people to attend the event.
6. Defined Parking Rules:
  - a) Parking permitted in marked spaces and on blacktop surfaces.
  - b) No parking on lawn except for hedge-lined grassy parking area noted on exhibit below.

- c) Someone monitors parking to ensure rules are followed.
7. Maximize size of tent is 20' x 20'. Location of tent must be approved by City Hall before erected and/or installed.
8. Total cleanup at the end of the event. Trash and other debris must be entirely removed from the site immediately after the event.
9. Comply quickly with any police request.
