ANCHORFEST

Thursday, October 12, 2017

6:00 p.m. in front of the Anchorage Firehouse

ANCHORFEST Moves to Thursday!

Gather your family and make plans to attend ANCHORFEST – our version of Oktoberfest – with an Anchorage flare! This year, the date is set for Thursday, Oct. 12th at 6 p.m. in front of the Firehouse on Evergreen Road. Annually, Anchorfest offers a traditional fall menu with kid-friendly items, homemade desserts and adult beverages. Beverages are sold for $1 per beer, $2 for wine and FREE bottled water. The Anchorage Civic Club welcomes the entire community to eat and celebrate the season. See you there!

HARVEST FOR HOPE AT USPIRITUS

Sunday, October 15, 2017

12:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Uspiritus invites the community to a free and family-friendly Harvest for Hope Festival from 12:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m., Sunday, October 15th on the lawn of the Uspiritus-Bellewood campus, 11103 Park Road, Louisville, KY 40223.

There will be free kids' crafts, carnival games, face painting, inflatables, a rock climbing wall, live music and more. Food vendors will also be available.

For more information, visit <http://uspiritus.org/harvest-hope/> or contact Kasen Meek at kasen.meek@uspiritus.org or 502.753.5502. Sponsorships are still available.

Uspiritus provides a comprehensive continuum of care serving children in Kentucky, offering services including therapeutic foster care, a family preservation program, residential treatment, community-based services, independent living and outpatient counseling. Uspiritus is a merger between Bellewood Home for Children and Brooklawn Child & Family Services.

IMPORTANT INSERT ENCLOSED

The City of Anchorage is required to publish all ordinances passed by City Council.
This information is made available to all property owners in the City.

YARD WASTE COLLECTIONS

Republic Services (R.S.) and the City remind residents that yard waste should be placed curbside no sooner than the evening before service and no later than 6:30 a.m. on Thursday mornings.

Each household is allowed a weekly maximum of:

- 16 paper bags not to exceed 50 pounds, or
- 5 R.S. containers, or
- 8 level trash cans no heavier than 30 pounds.

Make sure bags are of sufficient strength to contain without breakage.

Tree limbs and sticks must be cut and bundled in 3-foot lengths; limbs cannot be larger than 6-inches in diameter. The hauler will not pick up dirt, stumps, mulch, trees, fencing, construction materials, etc. in either the trash or yard waste.

Yard waste for the entire City is collected on Thursdays. The above limitations were established so that the large truck is able to service all households that day. Quantity overages, insufficiently bundled items, and non-collectable materials will be left at the curb.

Anchorpalooza Summer Concert

The 6th annual “Anchorpalooza” music festival was held September 9th at Wagner Park. This year’s festival included the inaugural North vs. South women’s flag football game. Approximately 25 women participated, and North won 21-16. Many people turned out to enjoy a beautiful day, food trucks, games, and live music. Thank you to the Anchorage Civic Club for organizing this great community event.

GOLF CART REGULATIONS

Golf carts are fun and easy ways to get around town, whether it's getting kids to and from school, going to a neighbor's house, or running errands. Anchorage, unlike surrounding cities, allows residents to use golf carts. However, a permit must be obtained and placed on a golf cart before it is driven on any public roadway of the City of Anchorage. Any person operating a golf cart must possess a valid operator's license and have it in his or her possession. Proof of insurance must be kept inside the golf cart at all times. Golf carts may operate only on roads with a posted speed limit of 35 mph or less, and only during the time after official sunrise and before official sunset. Please visit the City of Anchorage website or stop by City Hall for instructions on how to obtain a golf cart permit and a full list of regulations.

Emergency Preparedness List

The Anchorage Emergency Preparedness Committee maintains a list of residents who they check on during emergencies. If you or someone you know would like to be added to our resident emergency check list or you have any questions, please call Pat Welsh at (502)314-5685. Remember to regularly review your family's preparedness plans!

Welcome Officer Maggard

Officer S. Todd Maggard joined the Anchorage Police Department at the beginning of September. Officer Maggard has 21 years of experience with the Kentucky State Police (KSP), having served at the Madisonville, LaGrange, and Frankfort posts, as well as, 10 years with special operations. For two years, he was an instructor at the KSP Academy. He also served on legislative detail for three years. We welcome Officer Maggard to the Anchorage community!

City Saver Coupon Books

City Saver Coupon Books are $25 and contain discount coupons to many of our favorite eating and entertainment spots! The Anchorage School 8th graders are selling these books to help with their 8th grade fundraising for their class trip. Books may be purchased from the front office of the school with cash or checks made payable to Anchorage School.

The class of 2018 thanks you for your support!

FROM THE FORESTRY BOARD

STREET TREE CANOPY CAMPAIGN

The 2017 Street Canopy Tree Campaign is off and running. Residents who have placed orders will be notified about program status updates via email. Flags to mark tree locations will be delivered to residents in October. Weather permitting, the trees will be planted before Thanksgiving.

TREE GUARDS

During the fall, trees may get damaged by wildlife, especially deer. Tree guards are available for purchase by Anchorage residents at City Hall for $4 each.

2018 CALENDAR

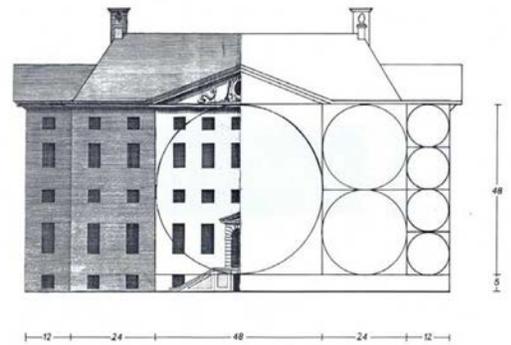

Watch for the Forestry Board's 2018 calendar featuring a new planner format and beautiful photographs of barns in Anchorage! The planners will be distributed at AnchorFest.

HARVEST FESTIVAL AT USPIRITUS

Forestry Board members will present a fun activity for children on Sunday, October 15th, at the Harvest for Hope Fall Festival on the Bellewood campus of Uspiritus. The festival is free and open to the community.

PILLARS OF PRESERVATION

When evaluating plans for new construction in the Historic District, the Anchorage Historic Preservation Commission ensures the structures will maintain the character of Anchorage. The Commission looks at criteria including design, scale, proportions, materials, and other factors. Scale is explained by renowned Architect, Steven Holl, in his essay on proportion, scale and perception: "One of the intuitive powers of humans is the perception of subtle mathematical proportions in the physical world. Just as we can tune musical instruments with a minuteness of proportional adjustment to produce harmonies, so we have an analogous ability to appreciate visual and spatial proportional relations. In music, as in architecture and any of the visual arts, these sensibilities must be cultivated." It is the goal of the Anchorage Historic Preservation Commission to preserve and cultivate a built environment that reflects these sensibilities.

Understanding Zoning Regulations

All construction in the City of Anchorage must meet zoning regulations in order to receive a building permit. These regulations include setbacks, floor area ratio and impervious surface maximums. Floor area ratio limits are set according to how a property is zoned, and range from 10% to 16% maximum coverage of the lot. Floor area ratio limits have remained the same for approximately 30 years, at which time the ratios were lowered. No variances are allowed to floor area ratios. Impervious surface for all properties is limited to 20% coverage of a property without a variance. For more information on zoning regulations, please call or stop by Anchorage City Hall.
